Important Democratic Primary Election

THIS TUESDAY, September 12th

Attention Fellow Democrats:

Hillary Rodham Clinton is opposed in the primary for U.S. Senate by a much more conservative candidate. Hillary needs a high primary turnout to strengthen her chances in November.

As Senator, Hillary Rodham Clinton will fight for health care for the uninsured, will support our public school teachers and protect women's rights. If Hillary's opponent wins, he will vote to keep Trent Lott as majority leader. That would mean support for right wing Supreme Court Justices who would overturn Roe v. Wade.

It's imperative that we vote for Hillary Clinton on Tuesday, September 12th!

This Voter Guide tells you about our local Democratic candidates, whom we're supporting along with Hillary Rodham Clinton: Charles Rangel, Ed Sullivan, Bob Ginsberg and Lynn Thomas.

Vote for them on September 12th, and vote the Gore/Lieberman ticket in November.

Assemblyman

Edward C. Sullivan

Congressman Charles Rangel

- Progressive Leader in Washington
- Secured Empowerment Zone for Harlem
- Fights Police Brutality
- Next Chair of Ways and Means ?!

Congressman Charles Rangel, the ranking Democrat on the Ways and Means Committee, opposes schemes such as George W. Bush's plan to give high-income people huge tax cuts. He knows these unnecessary tax cuts would come at the expense of needed government support for health and education programs, and would jeopardize our economic recovery. Congressman Rangel has consistently voted for women's rights, for universal health insurance, against weapons boondoggles such as SDI and the B2 bomber.

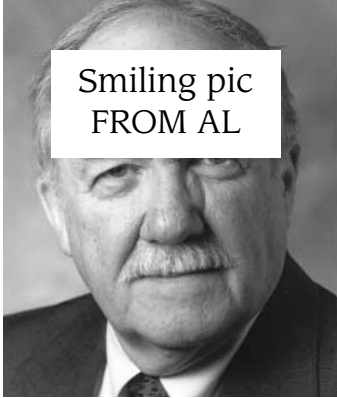

Here in New York, Charles Rangel spearheaded the creation of the Empowerment Zone for Harlem; he has worked, successfully, for more jobs, affordable housing, and community revitalization. Congressman Rangel believes that community policing is an essential tool in combating crime, but the police must be trained to respect the communities they serve—there must be no more Amadou Diallos and Patrick Dorismonds!

If the Democrats win control of the House, Charles Rangel will rise to the Chairmanship of the Ways and Means Committee, which will be a great benefit to our city.

Congressmembers Rangel, Nadler and Maloney all serve parts of our district. Only Congressman Rangel has an opponent in the Democratic Primary.

Assemblyman Ed Sullivan

- Fights for CUNY
- Fights for Tenants
- Fights for Senior Rx Drug Benefits
- Fights for Better Schools
- Proud to be a Democrat!

Ed Sullivan serves our community in Albany. He chairs the Assembly Committee on Higher Education. This year he won an increase in Higher Education Funding of over $200 million, including improvements in TAP (Tuition Assistance Program) and programs aimed at helping first-in-family students get a good start in college.

Ed Sullivan serves our community here on the West Side and in Harlem. He insists on more community participation in the plans of developers here. He operates a very active community office which helps tenants keep their apartments, helps seniors obtain their benefits, helps those who need help of any kind.

Ed Sullivan serves our community by speaking out for peoples' rights—the rights of women to make their own choice on abortion, the right of seniors to have the prescription drugs they need, the right of gay men and lesbians to have the same rights as everyone else.

We need Ed Sullivan to continue serving our community. Vote for him on Primary Day, September 12th.

If you have a few minutes or a few hours to volunteer on Primary Day, call Ed Sullivan at 678-6962. Leave a message and we'll put you to work!

Democratic State Committeeman Bob Ginsberg

Bob Ginsberg, one of the most progressive and independent members of the Democratic State Committee, leads the fight for civil rights, for gay and lesbian rights, for a woman's right to choose, for economic justice.

For too long, the Democratic State Committee was a tool of the party bosses. Then Bob Ginsberg got elected. He helped found the Reform Caucus, and started making noise. Now the State Committee is much more inclusive, and progressive Democrats win statewide elections.

Bob sends his children to West Side public schools. His proudest accomplishment is coaching his kids in the West Side Soccer League.

Democratic State Committeewoman Lynn Thomas

Lynn Thomas is part of a great political tradition, established in New York by Eleanor Roosevelt, that women should have an equal voice in the Democratic Party. She has fought with Bob Ginsberg and other Reform Caucus members to get the State Committee to recognize gay and lesbian civil unions and to appoint more liberals to the Democratic National Committee. A tireless worker at our Clinton-Gore storefronts, she looks forward to working hard again for Gore-Lieberman.

Bob Ginsberg and Lynn Thomas run as a team, continuing their fight to reform the State Democratic Party.

Judicial Convention Delegates

Manhattan has the city's finest judiciary because our Civil and State Supreme Court Judges are screened by independent panels, rather than picked by the political bosses.

Our Reform Delegates are pledged to vote only for judicial candidates found "Most Highly Qualified" by the Independent Screening Panel.

Congressmembers Charles Rangel, Jerry Nadler, and Carolyn Maloney urge you to vote for all 11 people on our slate, from Alan Flacks through Daniel O'Donnell.
